

Puggle's Problem

You have listened to the story of Puggle's Problem several times.

Using the worksheet, draw a picture to match each sentence.

Retell the main ideas in Puggle's Problem by cutting up the worksheet and pasting the pictures in the correct sequence.

Word order in sentences

"Really," Mum said. And in the meantime, you're so much easier to hug!"	Pipp asked Grunt, the koala, "How did you get your fluffy ears?"
Pipp Puggle was as plump and healthy as a baby echidna should be.	Pipp hopped to the waterhole.

Students completing this worksheet will have demonstrated that they have:

Listened to a familiar text and recalls key events.

Interpreted written sentences and orders them to reconstruct a retelling of a familiar text.

Drawn illustrations to match the meaning of a text.

Showed an understanding of the concept of print and how pictures can be labelled.

Demonstrated an understanding of how images, as well as print, can be used to tell a story.

Demonstrated an understanding of how images, as well as print, can be used to tell a story.