

Magic, Meaning, & an amazing Adventure!

The TÆ'ANARYN by DrJoe

- Looking for an engaging fantasy adventure story that kids love to read?
- Want a safe and professional environment where kids can discuss deep issues such as bullying, resilience, and finding meaning in life?
- Want an exciting motivational and magic show Kids love?

The Tae'anaryn – a show by Dr Joe on Bullying, Resilience and Life.

Book blurb: Kialessa was different. She had horns. She had a tail. She couldn't burn. With all this difference how would she find a way to fit in a world that didn't seem to want her? On the other hand, perhaps being different is just what the world desperately needs. Then Kia uncovers a plot to destroy the king of Lenmer'el, and that includes everything and everyone she cares about. What should she do? ... What would you do?

Reader comments: "Un-put-downable" Emily, avid reader aged 13. "Just as good as Harry Potter" Karlie, a young fan of fantasy and superheroes stories aged 11. "When is the sequel coming out!" male fan, aged 10, USA.

Teacher notes: This amazing new show by Dr Joe, based on his new book series "The Tae'anaryn," discusses bullying, being and bad hair days. The show has a strong basis in the social sciences, but makes use of magic tricks to engage and entertain learners. We live in an amazing world, and magic teaches us to look beyond what we see to find real meaning (and, yes, some magic tricks will be explained). This show gives the audience the chance to share ideas and experience solutions to some of lives most challenging situations (bullying, developing resilience, and finding meaning in one's life in particular), all from the safe distance of a fantasy story setting.
