Illustrator: Ann-Marie Finn

Publication date: July 2017

ISBN: 978-1-925563-03-0

RRP: 24.99 (Hardcover: 32 pages)

Eric loves to read.

He has a towering bookshelf brimming with stories of strange and wonderful worlds.

But ...

If only there were a way to actually get to these magical places.

He just can't seem to find the right words and his drawings never look quite right—not like his books at all!

How will Eric find a way? A humorous and unique story about finding your own way to be creative.

Robert Vescio is a published children's author. His picture books include Jack and Mia (Wombat Books), Barnaby and the Lost Treasure of Bunnyville (Big Sky Publishing), Marlo Can Fly (Wombat Books) listed on the NSW Premier's Reading Challenge for 2015, No Matter Who We're With (IP Kidz). He has more picture books due out soon. Robert is a Books in Homes Role Model and enjoys visiting schools. His aim is to enthuse and inspire children to read and write and leave them bursting with imaginative ideas.

Ann-Marie Finn is an illustrator and author of children's books. She lives in Brisbane with her two young boys who inspire new stories and ideas every day. She started her career in the UK, but migrated to warmer climes in 2007 and is now a happy Australian and proud owner of The Mad Hatters Bookshop in Manly, Queensland. She has a growing collection of children's books to her name, including A Trip to the Moon, Captain Kieron and I Despair of my Hair. She is also the illustrator of Lulu and My Brother Tom with Wombat Books.
