Once

A long time ago

*My grandmother's grandmother
Travelled far, far across the seas*

Over the rim of the world to where the stars were new

Kate Forsyth tells tales of her ancestors' lives in Australia in this beautifully illustrated picture book that celebrates the power of story. From the first perilous journey to a new land, to the great wars and civil rights movements, readers live through key moments in Australia's fascinating history

Kate Forsyth wrote her first novel aged seven & has now sold more than a million books worldwide. She has a BA in literature, a MA in creative writing and a doctorate in fairy tale studies, and is also an accredited master storyteller with the Australian Guild of Storytellers. She is a direct descendant of Charlotte Waring Atkinson, the author of the first book for children ever published in Australia.
